ANDREW SPINDLER ANTIQUES

→ With a trained eye and a passion for antiquity, Andrew Spindler offers an eclectic mix of decorative art and furnishings spanning four centuries in his antiques shop in Essex. A lifelong collector, Spindler studied literature at

Brown and Yale Universities before training at Sotheby's Institute of Art in London. He is an overseer at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, and has served on the Council for Collections Committee of Historic New England, and on behalf of the Cape Ann Museum in Gloucester. With his depth and breadth of knowledge on the subject of decorative art and furnishings and his affable personality, Andrew Spindler stays on top of his game in the world of antiques. 163 Main St., Essex, 978-768-6045, spindlerantiques.com

TODD FARM

→ "Todd Farm is a fun flea market for those of us who love the thrill of the hunt for collectibles. The size of the place is manageable—a full morning or afternoon will do the trick. You'll find everything from antique jewelry to furniture, childhood memorabilia, vintage clothing, classic china, glassware, and the like." —S.K. 283 Main St., Rowley, 978-948-3300, toddfarm.com
